

Anchor Educational Institutions

Examples of Area Four-Year Universities

Four Year Universities: Educational institutions which offers a 4-year, degree-granting program, such as bachelors degree programs.

Examples of Area Community Colleges

Community Colleges: Educational institutions known also as junior colleges. They offer two-year associates degree programs as well as workforce training, certificate programs, and continuing education. May also offer the option to transfer credits to 4-year colleges.

Examples of Area Trade/Technical Schools

Trade/Technical Schools: Educational institutions also known as vocational schools, who offer programs designed to provide training for specific technical or vocational tasks, such as skilled trades, nursing, or computer technology.

Of the above types of educational institutions, which do you think would most benefit the economy - and citizens - of Cherry Hill?

FOUR-YEAR UNIVERSITIES	COMMUNITY COLLEGES	TRADE/TECHNICAL SCHOOLS
------------------------	--------------------	-------------------------

Do you have any preference for any particular institution(s)? Please write below.

YOUR PREFERENCE HERE